GENEALOGY

DESCENDANTS OF CASPER (BONER) BUNNER
AND
MARY CHRISTINA BROWN

FIRST GENERATION

1. Casper[1] Bunner (Reuben[0]).
Born probably in Boner, Germany, ca. 1720, d. in Virginia (now West Virginia, m. in Virginia, Mary Christina Brown.
Casper, s/o Reuben Adam Boner who emigrated to America ca. 1735.
Mary, d/o Wendell Brown. (Brown's true name in German, was Wenzel Broune or Browne. It is recorded with this spelling in the early Land Survey records in Virginia.)
Casper and Christina [Brown] Bunner and family, lived for several years in the Tuscarora District of Berkeley County (now West Virginia). The exact years they lived here have not yet been determined with any degree of exactness. The "Reuben Bunner Revelation" contains the statement that Casper Bunner owned considerable lands in Berkeley County, which he gave to his sons, John, Casper, Reuben and Joseph, and a nephew William Bunner. This same document also states that Casper and Joseph Boner (Bunner), sons of Casper Boner, left their settlements in Western, Virginia, before 1800 and returned to lands given them by their father in Tuscarora, Berkeley County.
Casper emigrated from his homeland in Boner, Germany making the passage from Rotterdam, but last from Deal, aboard the ship Loyal Judith, Lovell Paynter, Commander, which arrived in the Port of Philadelphia in November, 1740. The passengers were processed through Customs on November 25, 1740, the Hon. George Thomas, Esq., Governor of Pensylvania and Samuel Hassell Esq., Mayor of Philadelphia in attendance.

Children, surname (BONER) BUNNER:

i. John[2], b. Virginia, ca. 1753, d. Virginia ca. 1810, m. first, Martha Evans; second, Martha Jolliffe. There were nine children, six sons and three daughters.

fathers' sides from the Fundator, we have hereby resolved that according to the compromise from the year 1685, the oldest son of pastor Agricola, named Johann Carl Christoph, and the oldest son of magistrate Ackermann, named Ernst Christian Wilhelm, will be alternately assigned the family stipend for 8 years, from St. Thomas' 1785 to 1793. THE BONER AND THE BREM SCHOLARSHIPS

The Boner stipendium was established by Caspar Boner (see Table 5) on 26 Feb. 1608 at Schleusingen in his last will and testament, and went into effect following his death on 3 June 1621 in Saalfeld. Boner specified the following in his will:

"The sum of 500 Gulden, the interest therefrom yearly as a stipend for a poor, diligent studying youngster,..., a child from the city or the country, not necessarily from Saalfeld, but must study well his fundamenta pietatis et artium; in each case my worthy friends (i.e. relatives) shall be awarded it before strangers.(Nonrelatives)

To the relatives and therefore those entitled to become recipients belonged the descendants of pastor Christian Moritz Wilhelm Ackermann by his second marriage to Wilhelmina Friedericke Theodora Höltzer, as shown on table 5.

Further, Johann George Brem in Altenburg, a descendant of Caspar Boner, in 1683 enlarged the Boner Foundation grant by 100 Mfl (florins) out of gratitude for having benefited from the scholarship himself, however also specifying that the 5 Mfl interest resulting annually from his accessory bequest should go to a blood relative of himself or of his wife, in whose lack to the child of an Altenburg official who attended the University, and the collator should be the eldest of his male descendants. (cf. Trinks, "Saalfelder Stiftungen und Vermächtnisse, Meiningen: 1892, p. 94).

The ministries in Altenburg and Meiningen agreed in 1861 that the interest of the Brem scholarship capital should be considered an augmentation of the Boner legacy.

The ministry in Meiningen therefore, in order to guarantee the execution of the stipulations concerning the Brem legacy, on the 25th of January 1870 requested the magistrate of Saalfeld, as collator of the Boner Stipendium, not only when conferring the Boner Stipendium on Boner family members, to advise them of their right to the Brem Stipendium as an augmentation of the Boner one, but also to report any such bestowal on such a family member to the collator of the Brem Stipendium.

Applications for the Boner Stipendium are to be addressed to the magistrate at Saalfeld.

Collation of the Brem Stipendium is managed by a member of the Brem family, now pastor E. Schmidt of Gumperda bei Kahla, under the guidance of the ministry at Altenburg.

As of 1880 the Boner Stipendium had a working capital of 1620 Marks, and the Brem Stipendium in 1909 had something over 1680 Marks, with a disbursal of 40 Marks per year.

Both scholarships were endowed for (University) students. According to Trinks, (see above), the Boner scholarship was being given to non-university students (Schüler).

tains to the welfare of Clyde and on many occasions his public-spirited efforts have resulted in great good to his community.

Mr. Mason was married February 22, 1859, to Miss Elizabeth L. Carleton, whose father was Rev. Thomas J. Carleton, a well known minister, and they have had the following children: Nellie, who married R. G. Tyler and has two children—Carl and Vira; Elizabeth, who is now deceased; Nathan H., who married Alice White; George A., who married Annie White; Maud A., who married O. C. Perrin, but died in September, 1904; and May.

Mr. Mason served as sheriff one term, 1902-03, being elected on the Republican ticket. In 1878 he organized a militia company, of which he was the first captain. He is very prominently identified with the Grand Army of the Republic and was first commander of McPherson Post, which was organized August 15, 1877. He is also a member of the Union Veteran Union. With his comrades Mr. Mason often lives over again those years of strife, their recital of personal experiences recalling vividly to mind the scenes of those strenuous days of 1861-65—the contending armies, the roar of cannon, the rattle of musketry, the pall of smoke, the shouts of victory and the groans of the dying. Also, as experienced by some, the sickness, starvation and misery endured in the war prisons of the South. Only the old veterans can understand these things in their full significance; the younger generation pass them too lightly by; notwithstanding, despite an appearance of ingratitude sometimes indicated by state legislation, the veterans are still honored by all who understand the principles for which they fought and the priceless legacy they secured to their country in a restored and solidified union. Mr. Mason has fraternal connection with the order of Odd Fellows and for many years was very active both in the lodge and in the encampment.

JAMES L. PARKS, a venerable citizen and justice of the peace of Riley Township, Sandusky County, Ohio, owns and resides upon a farm of 100 acres. He comes of a family which has long been prominently identified with the affairs of Riley Township and of the county. He was born on a farm in that township, December 13, 1836, and is a son of James and Mary (Boyer) Parks, and a grandson of James Parks, Sr., who is said to have come to this country from the North of Ireland and located in Pennsylvania.

James Parks, father of the subject of this record, was born in Union County, Pennsylvania, November 14, 1799, and was educated and grew to manhood in his native State. His education, like that of Abraham Lincoln, was limited to six months in a common school; his manual training, however, was of wider scope. As a woodworker and tiller of the soil he proved himself equally proficient. Hunting and fishing were the diversions of that early day, and that he was an expert marksman he proved in after years. Desirous of preparing himself more thoroughly for life's duties, he apprenticed himself to a wool-carder, soon becoming an adept in his chosen profession, and while thus engaged he also acquired a fair knowledge of the German language which was a boon to him in later years. He was married September 17, 1824, to Miss Mary Boyer, his faithful companion through a long and eventful life. He came to Ohio in the fall of 1832, locating first in Seneca County, and to Riley Township in the spring of 1833. His team, wagon and what he was able to carry, together with a family of eight persons and 50 cents in cash, were all he had with which to begin life in the wilds of Ohio. The struggle for subsistence was a severe one, but heroic efforts, combined with skill and good management, soon overcame the greater difficulties and the dawn of prosperity began to glimmer. He was not long in gaining the confidence of the people, not only of his own township but of the county as well, which was attested by his election to various public offices. First he served as township clerk and superintendent of schools, closely followed by the office of justice of the peace, which he filled at various times for nearly a quarter of a century. So ably were these offices looked after and cared for by the incumbent, in 1847 his name was placed upon the county ticket as a candidate for sheriff. He was readily elected, and inspired by the confidence the people reposed in him, filled that position as zealously as the former ones. At one time during his incumbency there was a jail delivery, and one of the fugitives, a colored man, who was shackled, could travel but slowly. The sheriff hearing of his whereabouts mounted his horse and started in pursuit. When he saw the sheriff, he attempted to escape by taking to the woods; when the words "Halt or I'll shoot" reached his ears, he stopped and started to return. On the way he said: "Massa, would you shot me if I hadn't stopped?" whereupon the sheriff replied, "I certainly would if I had had anything to have shot you with." In relating the incident he said he had nothing but his riding whip. The prisoner replied, "If I know dat, you nebber catch me." Mr. Parks was not a soldier in the Civil War, as he had passed the age limit, but times at home were as strenuous to him as though he had been at the front. He was accused of disloyalty to the flag and was threatened with mob violence because he could not be coerced into disloyalty to his political party. If the confidence of the people of Sandusky County was shaken by these accusations, it was soon restored. In the autumn of 1866 he was chosen to represent Sandusky County in the legislature. After filling this office for two terms, he retired from active life to his home near Riley Center, where, with his aged companion, surrounded by their children and grandchildren, he spent his declining years. He departed this life October 4, 1872, at the age of seventy-two years, ten months and twenty days. Of the children born to James and Mary (Boyer) Parks, five survive, namely: Hannah M., who resides at Toledo, Ohio, and is the widow of James W. Hone; James L.; Oliver H., of Fremont, Ohio; William G., of Riley Township; and Mary E., wife of George Doell, of Sandusky Township.

James L. Parks was reared in his native township. Although his educational advantages were limited to the public schools, he acquired a good education through reading and being brought in contact with those who had had better schooling than he. He is a broad and liberal minded man, who for many years has had an influence in the affairs of moment in his township. From his early days, his business transactions have been characterized by a high order of intelligence and good management, and he made steady advancement. He served as clerk of Riley Township two years, and has been justice of the peace six years, his commission running until January 1, 1912. He has been zealous and conscientious in the discharge of the duties of office, and well merits the esteem and confidence of the public which is accorded him.

Mr. Parks was united in marriage with Miss Mary A. Mooney, who was born in Carroll County, Ohio, and was a daughter of Jacob Mooney. Five children were born of this union, of whom two are living: Nettie L. and Ray V. Those deceased were: Herbert B., James L. and Mervin C. On January 9, 1905, the subject of this record was bereft of his wife by death. She had been to him a faithful companion and a true helpmate.

PETER P. BULLINGER, one of Scott Township's self-made men, successful farmers and respected citizens, owns forty acres of valuable land, one-half of which lies in Section 29 and the other half, on which he resides, in Section 28, his home being on the south side of the road. His parents were Francis P. and Mary F (Bumgardner) Bullinger. Both parents are now deceased, the father dying in 1884, and the mother in January, 1890, and both were buried in the Catholic Cemetery at Millersville.

Peter P. Bullinger did not have many educational advantages in his youth, but all the schooling he obtained was secured at Kansas, in Seneca County. He remained at home helping his father until he was twenty-two years of age, when he married and then engaged in teaming, at Kansas, for several months. He then bought his first twenty acres in Scott Township. This land was timbered and swampy, so much so that he had to cut down trees before he could build his cabin, which still stands as a landmark, and subsequently expend much time and labor in draining it. He still has five acres of land that has never been under the plough. All the substantial buildings now standing, Mr. Bullinger put up. He has been a hard and persevering worker and now able business as an oil well driller and contractor and has leases in both Madison and Washington Townships.

On September 28, 1890, Mr. Donnels was married to Miss Susan Lattimore, a daughter of Thomas and Susan Lattimore, and they have two children, Clarence and Alta. Mr. Donnels and family attend the Disciples Church. He is a stockholder in the Home Banking Company of Gibsonburg. In politics, Mr. Donnels is a Democrat and in 1908 was a candidate for nomination for county commissioner, but unexpected circumstances brought about his defeat at the primary election. He is serving in his second term as township trustee and is one of the township's representative men. Mr. Donnels is a member of the K. O. T. M.

EDWARD H. BUCHMAN, who was elected clerk of the courts of Sandusky County, Ohio, in November, 1908, by a majority of 1161 votes over his Republican opponent, Robert Halley, is one of the enterprising and representative young men of Fremont, in which place he resides with his widowed mother, at No. 918 Ewing Street. Mr. Buchman was born in Sandusky County, Ohio, September 13, 1877, being one of a family of seven children born to his parents, George and Catherine (Miller) Buchman.

His grandparents on the paternal side were John and Margaret (Shunk) Buchman, who settled in the county as early as 1843. Of their family of seven children but two are now living —Nicholas of Bowling Green, and Mrs. John Foos of Helena.

George Buchman, father of Edward H., was born in Sandusky County, in which he spent his entire life, being engaged in agricultural pursuits during his industrial period. He was very successful in his chosen vocation and was numbered among the well known men of the county. His death occurred October 4th, 1903, when he was in his fifty-ninth year. He had lived on the same farm in Washington Township for fifty-six years and few citizens of the township, if any, were more highly respected. He took an active and beneficial part in public affairs and at different times held various township offices, the duties of which he performed with conscientious thoroughness. He was before the people twice as a candidate for county commissioner. For fourteen years he held the office of adjuster for the Farmers' Mutual Relief Association of Sandusky County, Ohio. Mr. Buchman was a native of Rice Township, his parents moving to Washington Township when he was two years old. His wife, as already intimated, was in maidenhood, Catherine Miller, and their family numbered seven children: Peter A., Edward H., George F., Albert J., Rosa A., Clara A., and Mary Buchman Binsack.

Edward H. Buchman was reared on his father's farm and acquired his education in the public schools. After leaving school he was engaged in farming until 1899, when he was compelled on account of failing health to give up agricultural work. He then entered the business college in Fremont and took a complete commercial course, fitting himself for office work. He has been active in Democratic politics, has been loyal to his friends, and his election to the office of clerk of courts has already been narrated. Mr. Buchman is a very popular official and has proved himself to be thoroughly competent for the responsible position he holds. His duties bring him into contact with people from all parts of the county and his ready service and courteous manner make him a favorite with all.

LUTHER MOONEY, one of the best known residents of Riley Township, Sandusky County, Ohio, has resided on his present farm in section 29 since 1852. He was born in Carroll County, Ohio, March 5, 1847, and is a son of Jacob and Catherine (Hartong) Mooney, both natives of Pennsylvania.

In the spring of 1848, Jacob Mooney moved with his family to Sandusky County, Ohio, and for a time lived in Sandusky Township. In 1852 he moved to the farm in Riley Township now owned by his son, Luther, and there passed the remainder of his days. He died in 1862 and was survived many years by his widow, who died in 1890. Three of their children survive, namely: Benjamin, who makes his home in Fulton County, Ohio; David, who lives in Washington Township, Sandusky County; and Luther.

Luther Mooney was about fourteen months old at the time his parents moved to Sandusky County, and was reared to maturity in Riley Township. He attended the local schools and worked on the home farm in his youthful days, early becoming used to hard work. Farming has always been his occupation, and his farm of forty-seven acres in section 29 is one of the best kept up in that vicinity. He is a Republican in politics, and although he has never been a seeker for office has taken an active interest in public affairs.

He was married March 30, 1871, to Miss Hortense M. Bement, a native of Fostoria, Ohio, and they have had five children: Linden B., deceased; Dwight R., of Sandusky Township; Ralph L., of Riley Township; Ivan C., of Riley Township; and Elsie J. Mrs. Mooney is a daughter of George D. and Margaret Jane (Huss) Bement. She was three months old when her father died and she was at that age taken by her mother to Green Creek Township, Sandusky County, where she was reared and lived until her marriage. The mother of Mrs. Mooney died in 1903. The family is affiliated with the Reformed Church at Fremont.

RALPH BRUNTHAVER, residing on 120 acres of some of the finest land in Green Creek Township, lying on the western boundary line, devotes it to agricultural uses and is one of the township's substantial and enterprising men. He was born on this farm in Sandusky County, Ohio, February 29, 1876, and is a son of Lewis and Lorena (Forgueson) Brunthaver.

Adam Brunthaver, the grandfather, was born in Germany, and emigrated to America and settled first in Pennsylvania. In early manhood, he came to Ohio and remained in Fairfield County until after his first marriage, when he came to Sandusky County, settling in the woods of Green Creek Township, and there spent the rest of his life, dying in 1861, aged 72 years. He had served as a soldier in the War of 1812. He was married a second time, to Mary Smith, who survived until 1904, dying when aged 82 years. To the first marriage ten children were born and eight to the second.

Lewis Brunthaver was born in Green Creek Township, Sandusky County, a son of Adam and Mary (Smith) Brunthaver, spent his whole life in the same place and died January 7, 1907, aged 69 years. He married Lorena Forgueson, who died June 5, 1907, aged 63 years and 6 months. They had four children, namely: Ledora, who is now deceased; Eleanora, who is the wife of J. P. Elmers, of Ottawa County, Ohio; Grant, who is now deceased; and Ralph. Ledora and Grant died an hour apart, from black diphtheria, and both were buried in the same casket.

Ralph Brunthaver spent his boyhood on his present farm and was educated in the district schools and Green Spring Academy. He began farm work as soon as he left school, he and his father cultivating the home place together and when his father died he came into possession of a part of the property. He had but little improving to do as his father had put up all the substantial buildings, including the handsome brick residence of seven rooms which stands at the corner of the Finefrock farm and the township line road.

On June 30, 1907, Mr. Brunthaver was married to Miss Blanche Bradford, a daughter of Ransom R. and Elizabeth (Rapp) Bradford, the former of whom was born and reared in Trumbull County and the latter in Hancock County, Ohio. The Bradford family came to Clyde, Ohio, and there Mrs. Brunthaver was born, reared and educated. Mr. and Mrs. Brunthaver have one son, Carroll G., who was born November 14, 1908. In politics, he is a Democrat and fraternally he belongs to the Elks and to the Woodmen of the World, being identified with both organizations at Fremont. Mr. Brunthaver is a worthy representative of one of the solid old families of this section.

THOMAS COCHRAN, deceased, for many years was one of Rice Township's valued citizens, for more than a quarter of a century being successfully engaged in farming and fruit growing here. Thomas Cochran was born in Perry County, Ohio, December 22,

STONE FUNERAL TODAY

Funeral services for Mrs. W. B. Stone, who died at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, were held at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon from the residence No. 607 Galena Avenue, with the Reverend Bush, rector of the Episcopal church at Arkansas City, officiating.

Following the services the body was taken to Kansas City for burial in the family lot in Mt. Washington cemetery beside her husband, the late Col. W. B. Stone.

The body lay in state at the Stone home from 9 o'clock a. m., until 1 o'clock this afternoon.

The active pall bearers were C. L. Sawyer, J. M. Allen, P. C. Milliken, L. K. Moeller, E. J. Murdock and R. A. Coles

Dear Mrs. Muhley:

I didn't find Willie Alonzo Smith & Minnie Pearl Styse's marriage or John William Moore & Robirdie Alice Smith's. I looked for them also in the index of the marriage books. But, it is possible that there marriages are recorded in the books and just not listed in the index. We have found that a lot of names aren't listed in the index. If you want me to keep looking, let me know.

I have spent 1 hour researching for you this time.

Sincerely,

Protecting you

To protect the confidentiality of the census records, the Census Bureau will provide transcripts only to the following persons:

For	Must be requested by
An adult	The individual concerned
A minor child	A parent or guardian
A deceased person	A blood relative of the immediate family (parent, brother, sister, child, or surviving spouse), the administrator or executor of the estate, or a beneficiary by will or insurance. The application must show the requester's relationship to the deceased and must be accompanied by a certified copy of the deceased person's death certificate. Legal representatives must submit a certified copy of the court order appointing them; beneficiaries must submit legal evidence of their beneficiary interest with the application.

How to obtain a transcript

You can order a transcript of a census record by completing the attached request form BC-600, Application for Search of Census Records, which also contains the instructions. More applications and help in completing them can be obtained by writing, calling, or visiting the following places:

The Census Bureau's records with individual names are not on a computer. They are on microfilm, arranged according to address at the time of the census, with each household listed under the name of the household head or householder. Therefore, to find the right record, it is important that your application be as complete and accurate as possible. Because of the confidentiality of these records (Title 13, United States Code), no search can be made without an application that has been signed in accordance with the instructions.

This is not a free service. Each request must be accompanied by a $12 fee, which is not refundable. The fee covers searching not more than two census years for one person only. A search may take 4 to 6 weeks, depending on the difficulty encountered.

- If your record is found, you will receive an official transcript of the earliest information shown. Extra copies are $2 each.
- If your record is not found, you will be notified and asked to give new or corrected names and addresses.
- If you wish additional years searched, you will need to provide residential information for those years and another $12 fee.

Upon request, the Bureau will furnish a full schedule; this is the complete one-line entry of all the personal data recorded for the individual. The name of the household head may also be shown, but the names of other persons will not be listed. There is a $4 charge for each full schedule in addition to the $12 search fee.

No missing-persons service

There are two reasons why census records cannot be used in tracing missing persons:

- The records are confidential (see "Protecting you").
- They are organized on a geographic basic—that is, by address and then by the name of the household head—so an address is needed to locate the name.

Census records outside the Bureau of the Census

Except for early records destroyed by the British in 1814 and those for the census of 1890, which were lost in a fire, microfilm copies of all population census returns form 1790 through 1910 are open to the public and available for research or purchase at the National Archives and Records Service, GSA, Washington, D.C. 20408. Copies also may be found at Archives regional centers and at many libraries in various parts of the United States.

Everyone counts

In America, everyone counts! Because census takers have been collecting information on millions of U.S. residents every 10 years, certain basic items about you can be located for you or your representative. If you need a transcript for whatever reason, contact the Census Bureau.

HOW TO GET INFORMATION FROM YOUR CENSUS RECORD

LOOKING FOR PROOF OF CITIZENSHIP. . . AGE . . . RELATIONSHIP?

U.S. Department of Commerce
BUREAU OF THE CENSUS

Issued September 1983

Seeking proof of age?

Applying for an annuity or a pension?

Planning an overseas trip?

Your birth was not recorded?

Most of us at some time must show proof of age, citizenship, or relationship to a parent. When this happens to you and you don't have a suitable document, such as a birth certificate, your best bet is to ask for one by writing to the vital statistics office (or similar organization) in the State or city where you were born. Birth registration was not required in all States until 1920, and in some localities fires and floods destroyed what records were kept. If you cannot obtain a birth certificate, remember that your name is somewhere in the records of your national censuses, and the Bureau of the Census can probably furnish a document that will serve your needs.

Although the Census Bureau collects data on millions of U.S. residents every 10 years—there were 226 million of us in 1980—it keeps this information in the strictest confidence. Under certain circumstatnces, details from the Bureau's records, dating from 1900 through 1980, cen be released in the form of transcripts, like the one shown at the right.

The above information is furnished in accordance with title 13, United States Code, section 8.

The Bureau of the Census does not issue birth certificates, but this record is often accepted in place of one.

FORM BC-655 (9-12-77)

Using a census transcript

A transcript of your record in most cases will be accepted in place of a birth certificate. Ask the organization concerned whether this document is acceptable before requesting a search.

Some common purposes for a transcript are:

- Proof of age for governmental programs such as Medicare or social security benefits
- Proof of age for pensions and retirement plans
- Proof of citizenship to obtain a passport
- Evidence of family relationship for rights of inheritance
- Proof of age to obtain a driver's license or ID card
- Proof of citizenship or age when applying for employment

Information available

Transcripts of 1900 through 1980 census records show the following:

- Census year
- County and State where taken
- Name
- Relationship to householder or household head
- Age at the time of the census
- Place of birth (State or country only)*
- Name of person in whose house you were counted and if requested,

- Citizenship*
- Race
- Occupation*

You should be aware that a transcript simply repeats what is shown on the original records (for example, names may be misspelled), and the Census Bureau cannot alter these records in any way.

*If collected in the particular census.

AVAILABILITY OF CENSUS RECORDS ABOUT INDIVIDUALS

INTRODUCTION

The U.S. population census records contain a wealth of information about people. They are useful in learning about one's ancestors and about local social and economic conditions at various times in history. For more recent years, especially, they are official documents for persons who need to prove their age (in the absence of a birth certificate), relationship, citizenship, residence, and other facts in order to quality for pensions; get jobs, naturalization papers, passports, or insurance policies; establish an inheritance; or trace ancestry.

This Factfinder explains what census materials are available and how to obtain them, and also lists the sources for some other useful records about individuals.

There was a population census taken in 1790 and every 10th year after that. Page 3 of this brochure lists the items covered in the existing records for each year; the Bureau of the Census publication, Twenty Censuses: Population and Housing Questions, 1790-1980 (Wash., D.C., 1979),* shows the specific questions and the way they appear on the schedules.

CENSUS SCHEDULES AVAILABLE TO PUBLIC

Microfilm copies of the original population schedules, from 1790 through 1910,[1] are open to the public at the National Archives and its regional centers (see page 4) and at many libraries in various parts of the United States. (See Federal Population and Mortality Schedules 1790-1910, in the National Archives and the States (1983, available from Archives Publications, which also sells the microfilm rolls; see box on page 2).) Most now have facilities for making paper copies from the microfilm.

Researchers looking for specific names in the 1790 census should refer to the Bureau of the Census publication, Heads of Families at the First Census of the United States Taken in the Year 1790 (12 vols., Wash., D.C., 1907-08, reprinted 1965-75), which can be found in most major libraries. There are Soundex indexes on microfilm for 1880 and 1900 censuses for each State and for 1910 for 21 States, principally in the South. Local indexes to many of the 1800-70 censuses are available in genealogical collections.

A number of State and territorial censuses were taken in the intradecennial years, particularly in the 19th century. These are described by Henry J. Dubester in State Censuses: An Annotated Bibliography of Censuses Taken After the Year 1790, by States and Territories of the United States (Wash., D.C., 1948, reprinted 1969 and 1975). An appendix in that book provides information on the location of the existing records, many of which can be obtained commercially on microfiche. Some contain names.

Remittances from foreign countries must be by international money order or by draft on a U.S. bank. Price, 25 cents per copy. A discount of 25 percent is available on orders of 100 copies or more sent to a single address.

ACCESS TO CLOSED RECORDS

As individual records from the population censuses are confidential for 72 years, by law, those from 1920 on are not yet open to the public. Details from them can be released, however, in the form of official transcripts, to the named persons, their heirs, or legal representatives. (Census information is collected for statistical purposes only and therefore is exempt from the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and the Privacy Act of 1974.)

The Census Bureau maintains files from 1900 through 1980 at its Pittsburg, Kans. facility for search and transcription only by its own employees. There is a fee for this service. Application forms (and assistance in completing them) may be obtained from the following:

- Personal Census Service Branch
  Bureau of the Census
  Pittsburg, Kans. 66762
  316/231-7100
- Census History Staff, DUSD
  Bureau of the Census
  Washington, D.C. 20233
  301/763-7936
- Census Bureau regional offices
- Department of Commerce district offices

Many post offices also have the blanks.

Transcripts ordinarily show age, sex, and relationship to the householder, and where requested, race. If obtained in the particular census, State or country of birth, citizenship, or occupation can be listed as well. A "full schedule," showing all of the information collected for one individual in a given census (see page 3 for questions), can be ordered at extra cost.

The records are organized geographically, rather than by name, so except for those censuses that have indexes (see above), addresses are necessary to find them. Thus, the Bureau's files cannot be used to locate missing persons, to furnish addresses (prohibited by law in any case), or even to indicate how many people have the same surname.

A useful reference manual, Age Search Information (Wash., D.C., 1979),* describes the Bureau's service as well as other Federal individual record sources.

HISTORIES

The standard authority on early censuses is by Carroll D. Wright and William C. Hunt, History and Growth of the United States Census [1790 to 1890] (Wash., D.C., 1900). Histories were published for the 1950, 1960, and 1970 Censuses of Population and Housing; many libraries have copies of these. Volumes on the 1980 census and those between 1910 and 1940 are in preparation; meanwhile, information about them can be obtained from the Census History Staff (see above) as well as answers to questions of a historical nature not covered in these sources.

INQUIRIES ABOUT CENSUS DATA

Questions concerning the availability of published statistics (as distinguished from individual information) in printed form, on microfiche, or on computer tape can be answered by reference to the Bureau of the Census Catalog of Publications (one volume covers 1790-1972, annual issues thereafter).* The Bureau's regional offices, Commerce district offices, and most of the larger public libraries can also answer inquiries of this type and frequently have the reports on hand for reference, including the following, which present data in capsule form:

*Historical Statistics of the United States, Colonial Times to 1970
Statistical Abstract of the United States (annual)*
County and City Data Book (periodic, latest 1983)*
